Lake Tishomingo is Beautiful in the Spring

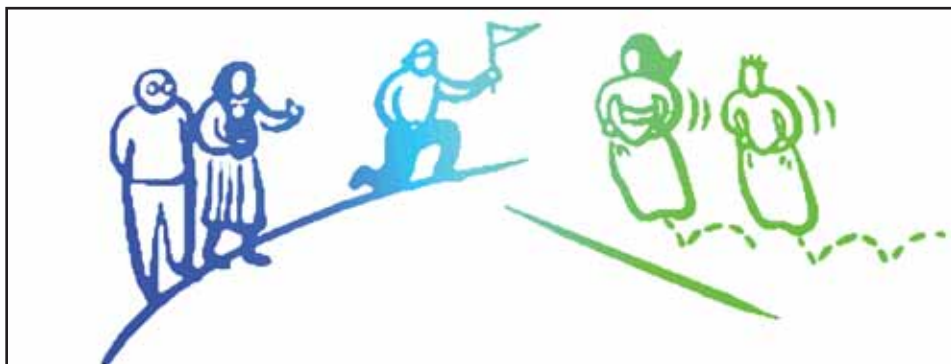

Colors of Spring are all around us starting with the first little multi-colored crocus, quickly followed by a magnificent array of color in the trees, shrubs and on the ground. Thank you, to everyone who planted all of the spring flowers that make the ride thru our neighborhood so gorgeous!

A show of gratitude and a job well done luncheon was given to all of the volunteers who participated in the Earth Day road clean up and especially to John Dauernheim for organizing this event year after year. Please don't litter, help keep our roads clean, safe and beautiful!

The LTIA has had a very eventful and fun-filled winter. We are looking forward to a resurgence of energy and activities for the forthcoming spring and summer.

Appreciation is given to Barb McGlynn and her hard working St. Patrick's Day Dinner Dance staff. We had a very successful & enjoyable event. We started out with a mouthwatering traditional corn beef & cabbage dinner with all of the fixings including many green pies, cakes & rice crispy treats too. Following our sold out dinner, there was a bonfire to enjoy outside and a dance with two bands inside. During the dance we had a fantastic display of delectable snacks with the food and fun lasting well past midnight. Thank you, Bev & Ken Jost, Sharon & Les Lauer, Barb and Kevin Scheirich, Eric the bartender, Michael & Mary Leiweke, Ron & Barb Rohm, and John Johnston who was out bike riding the next morning and came by the clubhouse and helped with the cleanup. Thank you and I really hope that wonderful help-where-you-can attitude is contagious. This was a GREAT fundraiser and we now have enough money for a Spectacular Fireworks Display.

Earth Day Road Cleanup

Preparation is underway for an OLD FASHIONED SUMMER PICNIC for June 13th at 2:00 pm. This will be a lot of fun! There will be games with small prizes such as a duck pond, a lollipop pull, sack races, washers, horseshoes, bingo, pull-tabs and more. We are negotiating for a balloon artist, clown, possibly face painter and if funds permit, music.

The Anglers Club is setting up a casting game of skill into Hula Hoops at the waters edge. We are planning to have food and drinks available; we are thinking perhaps hot dogs, chips, and nachos with cheese, hamburgers, funnel cakes, soft pretzels as well as a community wide bake sale. We will be sending out requests to the whole community for baked or homemade canned goods and can make arrangements to pick up goodies if needed.

This is the first attempt in many years for an Old Fashioned Picnic so mark your calendars for June 13th and lets make it a fun day at the lake, creating fond memories for our families, our friends, and ourselves.

Miss/Mr Tishomingo

It is time again to select candidates to run for King or Queen and be crowned as Miss or Mr Tishomingo.

This is the single biggest LTIA fund raiser of the year. It pays for our fireworks display for the following year (2010) and we are committed to approximately $4500+ per year. It is a big job, but the whole community works together and donates generously. Please consider running for King or Queen. See the related article on page 5 describing the Lake Tish Miss/Mr Tishomingo Competition.

If you are interested in running for this much-appreciated job please contact Mary Leiweke, 274-9002 or 314-941-9009, mbleiweke@aol.com.

Parents Club

Focus on Kids

Parents Club News

The Parents Club hosted The Easter Party & Egg Hunt. The clubhouse and lawn were full of adorable kids and parents for the "Best Ever" Easter Party. The party provided healthy kid-friendly drinks and snacks. Fun decorations, arts & crafts, games and music were all a part of this wonderful party and a great time was had by all.

A special thank you goes out to the Easter Bunny for fitting us into his busy holiday schedule; for hiding over five hundred goodie-filled eggs for the children to find and for taking the time to have all of the children sit on his lap for individual and group pictures. See the pictures on page 3. Thank you, Lisa Juedemann, and your generous staff for hosting again another wonderful kids party.

The parents club is new at the lake and they are doing a great job of providing fun activities for the kids and grandkids. Please consider joining this group of parents and grandparents and help this new group grow in a positive way to make Lake Tish a FUN place for kids too. The current focus is on creation of a safe playground area on the far side of the parking lot. This is a very big job and they truly need members to help make this plan a reality. There are several tentative children activities planned for this summer. The Parents Club usually meets on the third Thursday of the month and kids are always welcome at their meetings. At present with so many summer activities it is uncertain as to when or if meetings will take place during the summer months so please watch the bulletin board for meeting notices. Call Lisa Juedemann, 274-6111, for information on joining or planned activities.

LTIA is now accepting contestants for

Lake Tish Miss/Mr Tishomingo Competition

Everyone is invited to compete, especially those under age 18. All you need is the competitive spirit and a desire to win.

The candidates collect donations for next year's fireworks display. These can be collected by going door-to-door, standing at the entrance gate with collection cans, and soliciting donations at the upcoming Community Picnic and at LTPOA meetings.

The person who collects the most money will be crowned as Miss or Mr Tishomingo on July 4 and will have the place of honor in the July 4 Boat Parade.

To participate contact Mary Leiweke (274-9002, mbleiweke@aolcom).

LTIA Report

Mary Leiweke reported that the community picnic is June 13 and would like all lake organizations to sponsor something. Mary stated that the Anglers have a band which will perform and the Anglers will pay for.

Mary also stated the LTIA is encouraging all young teens to volunteer to run for Miss or Mr Tishomingo. These candidates collect money for the annual Fourth of July fireworks display. Whoever collects the most becomes Miss or Mr Tishomingo. Volunteers do not need to be LT residents. Grandchildren and other relatives of lake property owners are all welcome to participate.

Lake Tishomingo Community Sewer Project

by Janet Hirsch

On April 4 the Community House was packed with homeowners. It was standing room only for the Sewer Update Meeting. Everyone was there, eager to learn more about the plans for the central sewer system.

In the back of the room Ann Schatzman notarized hundreds of easement agreements throughout the meeting. The manufacturer's rep was there with an effluent pump and drawings showing typical installation. The north wall was covered with aerial photos and engineering drawings showing the placement of lateral lines, tanks, and pumps at each residence.

Description of the Sewer System

Tim Robbs P.E., the project engineer, was the main presenter. He described the different types of sewer systems, and explained why the Septic Tank Effluent Pumping (STEP) system is the type selected for our community. This system transports only the liquid from the tanks and that means the treatment plant can be smaller and less expensive than other systems.

Other benefits of this effluent sewer system include low maintenance costs, good for hilly areas, low visual impact, over 25 years of documented performance, negligible power cost for the homeowner, and 5 to 10 years between pump outs of individual tanks.

Each residence will have a STEP tank and effluent pump. The tank will hold all of the solid material and the pump will remove the liquid and send it to the treatment plant. The tank will have a 1000- to 1500-gallon capacity. The pump will be 115 v with a flow rate of 10 gallons per minute.

If the homeowner chooses not to install his own electrical line and does not sign the electrical easement agreement the electricity for the effluent pump will come directly from the homeowner's electric meter base. Connecting to the meter base will add to the cost of the project. What makes this expensive is that AmerenUE will require that a large number of meter bases be upgraded. In these cases the electrical line will be trenched from the meter to the control panel that will sit on a post in the yard. Most homeowners will probably find this unattractive. And there is a possibility that if there is no grant money to pay for this meter base upgrade, the homeowner will incur a connection fee.

The treatment plant will be built behind the dam. All the residential effluent pumps will pump into a 100,000-gallon tank and then be pumped into the recirculating sand filters.

A sand filter consists of a layer of one foot of clean gravel and 3 feet of pea gravel (or sand). Effluent moves down through the sand where it undergoes biological decay. The treated material is collected and sent back to the large tank. If the tank is full, 20% will be discharged from the system and 80% of the material will be sent back through the sand filter. This is equivalent of passing the effluent thru the sand filter five times before it is discharged. This provides for a very high-quality effluent. Before discharging into the creek, the effluent will undergo an ultraviolet disinfection step.

Homeowner Options

There will be several options for homeowners that can save time, money and minimize the amount of digging and disruption of the landscape.

- A residence with a newer septic system may be able to use the existing septic tank instead of installing a new STEP tank.
- Many existing systems use aerator pumps and although the aerator pump cannot be used, the electric circuit that provides the power can be used.
- A homeowner can have a dedicated electrical circuit installed instead of connecting to the meter base. With this option the homeowner can have control over the placement of electrical lines and the pump control box.

Electrical Easement

Selecting the electrical options for powering the effluent pump is voluntary and requires a signed electrical easement agreement. The homeowner provides an electrical connection complete with a disconnect on the side of the house near where the STEP tank will be installed. The easement allows the district to attach the control panel to the house, rather than mounting it on a post in the yard. (For most homeowners the post in the yard could end up being an inconvenient and unattractive lawn ornament.)

Homeowner installation of the electrical circuit will result in a tidier installation with a more esthetically pleasing appearance. This option will also save the district money because there will be no need to upgrade the electric meter. So, if the homeowner has room in the existing electrical panel for an extra circuit breaker to install a dedicated circuit, this is probably the way to go.
